1 On September 16, students gathered around the flagpole for a prayer meeting. "I felt that the prayer meet was a very positive thing that proved that we were not ashamed to stand up for what we believed in," Shelia Crouch said. 2 Masoma pledges, Teresa Lewis, Bridget Matthews, Rosalilia Romo, Jeri Groce and Shirley Latta sang, "I'm a little teapot" during the fall. Masoma stands for Manual's Active Sorority of Moral Achievements. "I was really nervous, but after the first day it was like whatever," said Teresa Lewis, "After that first song it was like it can't get any worse." 3 During Homecoming week, the junior varsity football team battled the Northwest Space Pioneers on September 25; the JV lost to a score of 28-12. 4 Bryan Stoddard and the leadership club washed Mr. Burns' van. According to Burns, the van has not been washed for 22 years. The main door could not be washed or it would have fallen off. 5 Rookie Tasha Bible put her pages away during yearbook. This was Tasha's first year on the yearbook staff. According to Tasha, she joined the yearbook because she thought it would be fun. "I like working on the yearbook," said Tasha, "I would advise anyone who is interested to sign up next year." 6 Studying is the key success to graduating. Junior Jeanette Burroughs used class time to study in Mr. Page's room. 7 Jeremiah Ingram, Jennifer Rios, Rosalilia Romo and Tony Lee talked to Ms. Johnston about their plans for college. The National Honor Society went to Purdue University on October 23 to gain information about different opportunities. 8 The band practiced for the IPS Marching Band Competition. They came in second place in Division two and won an award for the Best Overall Musical Effect. "I think we did excellent," said Bryan McFall, "but it took a lot of hard work and a lot of practice to get what we deserved. It was all teamwork and the band director, Mr. Guanajuato." 9 Tom Clark, Sarah Besser and Joey Smith celebrated after a JV wrestling meet victory. The victory was against Broad Ripple on December 8. 10 On November 16, the boy's basketball team scrimmaged against each other to compete for starter positions. 11 On September 25, during seventh period, La Tanya Davis, Amber Allen, Mellisa Nichols and NaTasha Capler fired up the crowd for the Homecoming game. "The pep rally was fun," said La Tanya, "especially since I am a senior. I was glad that the crowd cheered with us."

She was on the team for three years and she strived to be a good teammate. "I think that I'm best in teamwork and cooperation. If someone needs help then I'll be there for them." 4 Nicole Ashworth practiced before a game. This was Nicole's senior year on the tennis team and she was the #1 single's player. 5 After being convinced to join the team, Tina Mathis strived for two years to do her best in everything. "Mrs. Newan-Smith taught us not to get mad just be polite. Because when you're polite that makes our opponent mad. My partner Michelle Gann and I did that one time and it hurt them so bad that they ran off the court crying after the match." 6 Natasha Capler joined the team to stay in shape for cheerleading seasons. She was good in receiving the serve and was a team player.

Minds at work

Many students do not know what a welding class is. "It is to unite pieces of metal by softening with heat and pressing together," said Kyle Edwards.

As Ravan Carter and Crystal Walker tried to find a t-shirt design for the senior class, Crystal said Senior Council has been a great experience and it helped her with decision making.

Senior Officers

Tina Mathis, Jennifer Herring, Rosalilia Romo, Mindy Hall

John Graves and Tiawanda Avant discussed fund raisers for Spanish Club. This is Tiawanda's first year as Spanish club president. "It is an honor to serve as president of the Spanish club. It is rewarding to share my thoughts and opinions with my members."

Auto mechanics, taught by Mr. Murphy second period, gives students an opportunity to work on used cars. Ted Harris is diligently working on a '98 Oldsmobile.

Sophomore Division

Students studied hard during class while participating in different sports. 1 Pierre Garnett asked Mr. Flis for help while doing his homework. 2 Josh Ramsey 3 Karla Baker took score for the girls basketball team and she was the manager of the Cross Country and Girls Basketball Teams. 4 Bruce Barton 5 Adam Steele, a wrestler who made good grades, paid attention to Mr. Flis who was showing the steps of the homework assignment. 6 Ariel Burroughs and Alvin Gowdy 7 Samantha Ingram anchored the MRTV announcements as well as participated with Clean Team. 8 Lonnie Tate 9 Jamie Sparks, played junior varsity and varsity basketball, Cross Country. 10 Melissa Bohall 11 Riheem Brown was a junior varsity basketball player. 12 Mary Cronk 13 George Stevens read the sports section in the paper while La Donna read her horoscope. 14 Alex Spencer 15 Daniel Neidling helped Alex Spencer in Mrs. Thompson's class. 16 Ashley Hunter loved to hang out with her friends and to draw. 17 Joey Smith ran Cross Country and wrestled. 18 Christy Scruggs 19 Charles Campbell played junior varsity basketball 20 Willie Tidd 21 Keanna Tomasello

COLOPHON

The 1999 IVIAN was printed by Walsworth yearbooks, Inc. in Marceline Missouri, on monarch gloss stock. The endsheets were printed on white endleaf stock. It contains 128 (7 3/4 x 10) pages and 300 copies were printed. The cover is a gloss laminate with four color.

The entire book was paginated on two PowerPC 5620/120 and three PowerPC G3, with word processing done on four Macintosh IIci. These spreads were submitted by zip disk to Walsworth. The following software was used to produce copy and layouts: Adobe PageMaker 6.5 and ClarisWorks 4.0.

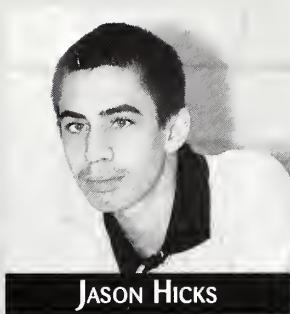

All body copy was set in 11 point New Century Schoolblock and captions in 8 point BarmenoReg. Headline font was BarmenoExtraBold and New Century Schoolblock. Underclass pictures and senior portraits were taken by Prestige Portraits of Indianapolis, Indiana.
